18. ASSIGNMENT AND SUBCONTRACTING

18.1 Assignment by Supplier. Supplier shall not assign the Contract or the PO or any obligations under the Contract, nor shall Supplier subcontract for completed or substantially completed Goods and/or Services purchased under the PO without the prior written consent of Buyer. Any such consent to sub-contract shall not relieve Supplier of any obligation to comply with the Contract or any PO. This limitation shall not apply to the purchase by Supplier of standard commercial supplies or raw materials. Supplier shall select subcontractors (including supplies) on a competitive basis to the maximum practical extent consistent with the objectives and requirements of the PO. Supplier is responsible for the management of any sub-supplier and will be liable for their performance, including but not limited to sub-supplier errors, acts, omission negligent or otherwise whether or not the Buyer directed or recommended the sub-supplier. The acceptance by LISI of the sub-contracting by its Supplier of the PO in full or in part in no way releases the latter from its responsibility, the legal and contractual guarantee, the controlling and the monitoring of the Supplies that are subcontracted and that it is guarantor for as regards LISI. The Supplier remains the only one responsible for adhering to the carrying out of this Contract by its own subcontractor. Supplier shall be responsible within such extension for any and all additional charges resulting from deviation from Buyer's instructions; (b) If Supplier fails to perform any of the other provisions of the PO and/or of the Contract, or fails to make progress as to endanger performance of the PO and/or the Contract in accordance with its terms, or Buyer anticipates such failure, and Supplier does not remedy such failure within a period of thirty (30) calendar days (or such longer period as Buyer may authorize in writing) after receipt of notice of failure from Buyer.

19.2 In the event Buyer terminates the PO and/or the Contract in whole or in part as provided in subparagraph 19.1 above, Buyer may procure, upon such terms and in such manner as Buyer may deem appropriate, Goods and/or Services similar to those so terminated, and Supplier shall be liable to Buyer for any excess costs for the same, and reimburse Buyer for all monies already paid for the performance of the PO and/or the Contract, provided that Supplier continues the performance of the PO and/or the Contract to the extent not terminated hereunder.

19.3 If the PO and/or the Contract is terminated as provided in subparagraph 19.1 above, Buyer may, in addition to any other rights provided in these Terms and Conditions or available under applicable law, require Supplier to transfer title and deliver to Buyer or its designee, in the manner and to the extent directed by Buyer : (i) Any completed Goods, and (ii) Such partially completed.

20.1 Termination by Buyer. Buyer may at any time by written notice terminate all or any part of the PO and/or the Contract at its sole convenience. In the event of such termination, unless otherwise directed by Buyer, Supplier will: (a) promptly terminate all work under the PO on the effective date of termination set forth in the notice; (b) transfer title and deliver to Buyer the finished Goods, the work in process, and the parts and materials that Supplier reasonably produced or acquired according to quantities ordered by Buyer and that Supplier cannot use in producing goods for itself or for others; (c) verify and settle any claims by Supplier's subcontractors or sub-suppliers for actual and reasonable costs incurred directly as a result of the termination and ensure the recovery of materials in subcontractors' or sub-suppliers' possession; (d) take actions reasonably necessary to protect property in Supplier's possession in which Buyer has an interest; and (e) upon Buyer's request, Supplier shall cooperate with Buyer in any transition of supply of Goods to a different supplier. Supplier may submit to Buyer a claim reflecting the percentage of the work performed prior to the effective date of termination, plus reasonable charges that Supplier can demonstrate have resulted from the termination, to the satisfaction of Buyer. Supplier shall not be paid for any work performed or costs incurred which reasonably could have been avoided. Further, Supplier shall not be paid, and in no event shall Buyer be obligated to pay, in particular, lost or anticipated profits or unabsorbed indirect costs or overhead, unamortized capital or depreciation costs.

In no event shall Buyer be obligated to pay Supplier any amount in excess of the PO price. The provisions of this paragraph shall not limit or affect the right of Buyer to terminate the Contract for default. In any case, Supplier shall continue all work not terminated. Any amount otherwise due to Supplier pursuant to this Section will be reduced by any amount owed by Supplier to Buyer under the Contract or otherwise. Any payment under this Section will not be deemed a waiver of any of Buyer's other rights arising under the Contract or applicable law. In addition, in no event shall the liability of Buyer for a termination for convenience exceed the price of the related and outstanding Goods under the Contract.

20.2 Termination by Supplier. Supplier may terminate any Contract (in whole or in part), only for non-payment by Buyer of the purchase price for Goods in accordance with such Contract, and then only if the amounts are material and more than sixty (60) days past due; and if Supplier first provides Buyer written notice specifying: (a) the amounts past due (including, without limitation, relevant PO and invoice numbers and dates), and (b) Supplier's intent to terminate if the past due amount is not paid; and (c) Buyer, within thirty (30) days of Supplier's notice, does not either pay the past due amounts, or notify Supplier that the amounts claimed to be unpaid are disputed by Buyer. Provided the foregoing conditions are met, Supplier may terminate the PO by delivering a termination notice to Buyer. Supplier may not terminate or cancel any Contract (in whole or in part) for any reason except as permitted under this section. Supplier may not suspend any performance under any Contract for.

20.3 Exit Plan. In case of termination or expiration of any Contract, in whole or in part, the Parties agree to work together in good faith to promptly develop an exit plan for the manufacturing by Supplier and purchase by Buyer, under the terms of such Contract. At Buyer's request, Supplier agrees to produce a safety stock of Goods under the terms hereof, including, without limitation, price, to support Buyer's requirements for a relevant and appropriate transition period enabling a smooth qualification procedure of the goods from an alternative source.

20.4 Continuation of work. In the event of termination, Supplier shall immediately stop all work hereunder unless otherwise directed by Buyer, and shall immediately cause any of its sub-suppliers or subcontractors to cease work.

20.4 Transition of Supply. The parties acknowledge that the Goods represent components that will be incorporated into motor vehicles, and that any disruption in the supply of Goods would materially and irreparably harm Buyer and Buyer's customers, and that any re-sourcing of the Goods by Buyer to alternative supply sources would require significant time, effort, cost and resources. Accordingly, in the event the PO expires or is terminated, Supplier agrees to cooperate in the transition of supply for a relevant and appropriate transition period enabling a smooth qualification procedure of the goods from an alternative source.

21. NO WAIVER. The failure of either party at any time to require performance by the other party of any provision will not affect the right to require performance at any later time, NOR WILL THE WAIVER BY EITHER PARTY OF A BREACH OF A CONTRACT CONSTITUTE A WAIVER OF A LATER BREACH OF SUCH CONTRACT. No amendment to a Contract shall be binding unless it is contained on a PO or on a Signed Writing.

No waiver, delays, or forbearance by Buyer of any breach of the Contract or a PO, or the granting of an extension for performance thereunder shall be construed as a waiver or relinquishment of any such provisions, rights or remedies. Supplier agrees that Buyer's approval of Supplier's technical and quality specifications, drawings, plans, procedures, reports, and other submissions shall not relieve Supplier from its obligations to perform all requirements of the Contract.

22. SEVERABILITY. If any term is invalid or unenforceable under any statute, regulation, ordinance, executive PO or other rule of law, the term will be deemed reformed or deleted, as the case may be, but only to the extent necessary to comply with applicable law. The remaining provisions of an applicable Contract will remain in full force and effect. The provisions of a Contract, which by their nature are intended to survive termination, cancellation, completion or expiration of the Contract (for example, Warranty, Remedy, Indemnification, Dispute Resolution), shall continue as valid and enforceable obligations of the parties, notwithstanding any such termination, cancellation, completion or expiration.

23. APPLICABLE LAW AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

23.1 Applicable law. The validity and performance of the Contract and any related PO shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the jurisdiction in which Buyer's facility issuing the PO is located. The Parties agree that in the event of any dispute arising from the Contract and any PO, they will endeavor to reach an amicable settlement, then an escalation process involving the respective General Managers of the Parties who will consult each other and try and solve the dispute within a period of eight working days. Failing to reach such dispute resolution, jurisdiction and venue of any suit between the Parties hereto arising out of or connected with this Contract, the PO or the Goods and/or Services furnished hereunder, shall lie only in the competent courts in which such Buyer's facility is located, and each party specifically waives any and all objections to such jurisdiction and venue.
